

Two knights faced off at opposite ends and took a brief “Knight’s Tour” of their chessboard, mirroring each other’s path, passing through each row at least once.

Place where people are buried

Becoming Prominent

Citizen of Belgium, e.g.

King of numidia assassinated by Jugurtha

Last name of pitcher who recorded a shutout game in Olympic baseball

Place, Situation

Broad track of plain across the north center of Cyprus

Last name of president and founder of Arab Business Leaders

Band formed as a joint project of Marty Willson-Piper and Dare Mason

With child

Rodent-eating crawler

Mountain Coaster at Holiday Valley resort

Member of Shakkazombie

Long Serving British Monarch

Pseudonym of French writer Francois Marie Arouet, whose works include the satire Candide

Japan’s second most populous city

