

The Museum Heist

The police have learned of a thief's plans to rob a famous museum, but they can't make heads or tails of the letter the thief sent their accomplice. Without decoding it, they won't be able to catch them before the heist. Can you discover the country and name of the museum before it's too late?

The COLUMNS outside the museum are truly beautiful.
I can't wait to see it with you.
Remember, the truck bed is (5 by 5). See you soon!!!
